played song on country radio in 1995) and the #1 single “Dust On The Bottle.” Both songs have become staples on country radio today.

Murphy went on to record two more albums. We Can't All Be Angels produced the hit single, “All Lit Up In Love” and “We Can't All Be Angels,” which was featured in the Patrick Swayze movie Black Dog. Murphy's album Tryin' To Get There (the title track he wrote with friend and musical hero Waylon Jennings) produced the Top 5 single “Loco.”

Murphy has earned more than two dozen songwriting awards for songs he has written for superstars like Kenny Chesney, Jason Aldean, Luke Bryan, Keith Urban, Florida Georgia Line, Thomas Rhett, Eric Church, Brad Paisley, Hank Williams Jr., Brooks & Dunn, Reba McEntire and others. Some of his hits include songs by Kenny Chesney (“Here And Now,” “Live A Little,” “Living In Fast Forward,” “Pirate Flag,” “Til It's Gone”); Jason Aldean (“Big Green Tractor,” “The Only Way I Know”); Jake Owen (“Anywhere With You”); Thompson Square (Grammy-nominated “Are You Gonna Kiss Me Or Not”); Kip Moore (“Last Shot”); Justin Moore (“Why We Drink”); Gary Allan (“A Feelin' Like That”); Josh Thompson (“Way Out Here”) and Blackberry Smoke (“Good One Coming On”).

Murphy's debut platinum-selling album Out With A Bang produced a string of hits, including the title track “Out With A Bang,” “Fish Ain't Bitin'” and “Just Once,” which was featured in the movie 8 Seconds about bull rider Lane Frost. Also on that album were the hit singles “Party Crowd” (Radio & Records awarded it the most-

EAST NASH GRASS 6:30 PM • SATURDAY

As Nashville's newest bluegrass ambassadors, East Nash Grass comes as a refreshing break – a balance of undeniably hard-driving bluegrass alongside surprisingly introspective songwriting and earnest narration. Featuring a who's-who of Nashville's hottest young pickers, the joy and passion these musicians feel toward the genre is infused in every note they play and every word they sing.

East Nash Grass features James Kee on guitar and vocals, Grand Master Fiddle Champion Maddie Denton, Gaven Largent on dobro, Presidential Scholar for the Arts in Jazz Jeff Picker on bass, two-time IBMA Momentum Award Winner for Best Instrumentalist Cory Walker on banjo and Searcy's own Harry Clark on mandolin.

DR. ZARR'S AMAZING FUNK MONSTER 8:00 PM • FRIDAY

One of the most popular Memphis bands ever to hit the party scene, Dr. Zarr's Amazing Funk Monster has entertained legions of fans throughout the South for more than two decades, having played thousands of shows. From disco infernos to 80s new wave, this group has created one of the most energetic and fun bands you'll ever see. Entertaining all the ages with their lighthearted, fun-filled mood, Dr. Zarr's Amazing Funk Monster dresses up in crazy clothes and brings music to life whenever they take the stage.

LOVE AND A REVOLVER 7:00 PM • FRIDAY

After a recording trip to the famous Robin Hood Studios in Tyler, Texas, where bands like ZZ Top cut their teeth, Love and a Revolver is back playing live music all over Central Arkansas. This five-piece band of longtime friends includes Jenny Clayton on vocals, Wes Richardson and Kyle Priest on guitar, Brad Lawson on bass and Adam Burton on drums. Love and a Revolver is a good-time band playing classic Southern rock with a mix of today's popular hits.
